

ELECTION TO-DAY.

Both Parties Claim to feel Confidence in the Result

BUT REPUBLICANS ARE SINCERE

WHILE THE DEMOCRATS REALLY FEEL THAT THEIR CAUSE IS A HOPELESS ONE UNLESS REPUBLICAN APATHY IS TO ENABLE THEM TO WIN AN OFF-YEAR VICTORY—MUCH OF THIS APATHY, FORTUNATELY, HAS BEEN DISPELLED.

Both parties in this county claim to feel a confidence in the result of the election to-day, but the difference is that while the Republicans feel the confidence which comes from a feeling of the righteousness of their cause, a logical working out of what ought to happen if the people are aroused and aware of their true interests—on the other hand, the Democrats feel an assumed confidence that has no depth or reason beyond the hope that Republican apathy will allow them to achieve a victory in an off year, a victory that would be as difficult to explain as the landslide of 1892.

The voter would do well to ponder over what followed the last election at which the Democracy triumphed. Hard times, idle workmen, smokeless factory chimneys, a revenue tariff—all these resulted, and then came the political revolution of 1894, followed by the more substantial Republican triumph of 1896, which have resulted in a return to prosperity all along the line. How can the voters of this community, which especially thrives under the protection policy, contemplate a possible return of the Democracy to power? Surely, it isn't possible they will vote that way to-day.

Much of the apathy that was for a time evident in the Republican ranks has been dispelled, and there has followed a general realization of the fact that to-day's election is one of great importance; that it is possible to lose to-day the benefits that have followed two Republican victories at the polls. Prosperity, like every other good thing in this life, must be cultivated, and it does not now appear that the people of Ohio county are in the humor to-day to undo what they have recently shared in bringing about through their magnificent endorsement of Republican policies. It is generally conceded that the personnel of the Republican ticket in Ohio county this fall is excellent. Captain Dovenor—the gallant Dovenor, the Chevalier Bayard in West Virginia Republicanism—commands the respect and the hearty support of every Republican. His record in the house of representatives has commanded attention and favorable comment from men and journals far beyond the confines of the First congressional district. But aside from the man, even if his opponent were head and shoulders above the captain individually, Mr. Blair does not stand for policies that are for the good of this community. This ought to be remembered.

For the state senate, Mr. Nelson E. Whitaker, is the strongest man the party could present. He has always stood for protection, honest money and an economical and capable administration of the state. It is not whispered that he did not support his party's candidate for the presidency in 1896. Neither did he ever accept office at the hands of a coalition of Democrats and Republicans, in opposition to the regular nominee of his party.

For the house of delegates, Messrs. McCoy, McClure, Behrens and Connelly are good men and true without exception, and if elected they will not cast their vote for a free silver United States senator. Citizens desiring continuance of the present prosperity would remember that the next legislature is to elect the successor of Mr. Faulkner, and it is of importance that Mr. Elkins be given the co-operation of a fellow Republican from West Virginia. Republicans should decline any offers to trade off on the legislature.

The balance of the county ticket is made up of excellent material. The candidates for board of county commissioners are business men of high capacity, and every district in the county ought to be given a Republican member of the board. Here is another spot where the Democracy would trade votes. They desire control of the board in 1900, a presidential year. Will the Republicans of Ohio county, who know the irreparable partisan methods of former Democratic boards allow that party to regain control to-day?

ELEVENTH HOUR LIES

Spring by the Register this Morning. Base Fabrications by which the Democracy would Influence Public Sentiment—The Democrats are Colonizing. Under the head, "Boodle Everywhere," the Register comes out this morning in an article that is remarkable for the number of falsehoods it contains. Written before the shades of night had fallen, it opens with the very apparent untruth that the Republicans were last night flooding the South Side and North End with "boodle." Knowledge of the methods employed by its own party workers made it natural for the Register to spring this falsehood.

Proceeding, it alleges that the court house was filled with Republican workers yesterday afternoon. The Register, it would seem, does not know that the grand jury was in session yesterday, and that many office holders engaged in their duties, and citizens, both Democrats and Republicans, filled the corridors of the building during the day. It was too good a chance to lie with a show of plausibility to be missed by the Register.

Then the Register departs absolutely from the truth by alleging that the Republicans are engaged in a desperate attempt to colonize outside voters in several districts of this county. Possibly the Register is making a mistake, in that it is not the Democrats, but the Republicans, who are concerned, in order to cover up on behalf of the Democratic party, their own misdeeds. The Register, perhaps, will deny any knowledge of the bringing into Wheeling yesterday of thirty-two pipe liners, who were last night quartered at a resort on Market street kept by a man who is not only a Democrat, but a party worker. To these men, who have been brought here to vote the Democratic ticket if it can be done, it would do well to call attention to the circular signed, "Democratic Executive Committee," which was being circulated last night. It reads:

"Notice is hereby given that all violators of the election law will be promptly arrested and prosecuted in the District Court of the United States. Election law is a felony to violate the election law, is punishable by confinement in the penitentiary. A full and complete list of several hundred illegal voters, imported into this county by the court house, will be in the hands of every challenger at every voting precinct. All illegal voters will be arrested on the spot. Proper authorities will be on the ground to see that no illegal voters escape, and that an honest election is held in the city. Every violator of the election law will be promptly dealt with by the state authorities. No one taken into custody by properly authorized persons, designated by the commissioners of the United States in this city. For every person arrested and convicted of illegal voting or of violations of the election law, a reward of $50 will be paid. The Republicans of Ohio county will not vote any person who is not a legal voter. Can as much be said for the Democracy? These "pipe-line" importations would make it appear otherwise.

TO ALL VOTERS.

To-day, when the voter enters the voting booth and stands with his ballot before him, alone, "with his conscience, his God and a lead pencil," there are certain propositions which he must place before himself for consideration: He will say by his vote which he wishes to sustain, McKinley or Sagasta; whether he favors an American or Spanish policy; whether the people should retain or hand back to Spain the fruits of the war; whether they should commend or insult Dewey, Schley, Sampson, Shafter, Wheeler, and the heroes who, on land and sea, added glory to the Nation and the Stars and Stripes.

If the voters properly realize the importance of the election, and the effects on the Nation's status before the world, there is no doubt as to the choice that will be made. They will vote for Republicans for congressmen, for members of the legislature, and for every office to be filled. By thus voting they will say to the world that the United States has not receded an inch from the position it held on May 1, when Dewey's ships sent the Spanish fleet to the bottom of the harbor of Manila—Chicago Inter Ocean.

OHIO COUNTY'S VOTE

May be in Complete at Midnight—Names of the Election Judges—Polls Will Open at 6:40 a. m. and Close at 4:50 p. m.

On account of the short ballot and the fact that only two tickets are in the field, the returns will be received at the office of the board of county commissioners to-night earlier than has been usual at recent elections. It is hoped that the entire vote will be in at midnight, and at 2 a. m. at the farthest.

The election officers called at the office of Clerk Moffat, of the county commissioners, yesterday and received the boxes, tickets and booths. THE POLLS WILL BE OPENED THIS MORNING AT 6:40 O'CLOCK, AND WILL CLOSE AT 4:50 P. M., PAST TIME.

There have been many changes in the election officers, and the Intelligence this morning gives the revised and corrected list:

Voters and workers desiring copies of the Intelligence's Election Hand Book, which gives the boundaries of the voting precincts as recently re-established by the board of commissioners, can obtain them this morning at the Intelligence counting room. Only a limited supply is on hand now.

Election day here will be the occasion of the closing of all the banks of the city for the day. The county and city building offices will be closed and none of the courts will be in session. Many other offices and some of the industries will observe the day in order that employees may have the opportunity to cast their votes.

HE IS FOR DOVENOR.

A Moundsville Veteran Makes a Manly Statement, Admitting he Made a Mistake, and now Says he will Support the Gallant Captain Dovenor.

To the Editor of the Intelligence.
SIR:—I see a card in the Wheeling Register and Moundsville Echo, in which it is stated that I will not vote for Captain B. Dovenor. I DESIRE TO RETRACT THE STATEMENT MADE IN THAT CARD.

At the time the card was published, I was under a misapprehension as to some facts and did not fully realize the harm such a publication might do.

I desire to say that I AM FULLY DETERMINED TO SUPPORT HON. B. D. DOVENOR AND THE WHOLE REPUBLICAN TICKET, as I always have done, and I advise all my comrades to stand by the ticket and they will make no mistake.

I am sure I made a mistake in permitting the use of my name to the card.

Very respectfully,
JOHN P. LOGSDON,
Moundsville, Nov. 7.

IN MARSHALL COUNTY
The Republicans Confident of Running up a Large Majority.
The result of to-day's election will be another victory for the Republican ticket in Marshall county. Although an attempt has been made by the Democrats and a few disappointed Republicans to raise a factional fight, the attempt has proven unavailing, and to-day's vote will show the Republicans of the county firmly united, and the ticket elected by a large majority.

Chairman S. M. Steele, of the central committee, late last evening estimated Dovenor's plurality in the county at 1,200 to 1,500; and the balance of the ticket elected by large majorities. S. R. Davis, the candidate for commissioner, and on whom the greatest fight has been made, will be elected by a fair majority. Dr. Steele says that the trial of Davis on the charges made by sore-headed Republicans, pushed and urged on by the Democratic ring, and their utter failure to prove and sustain the charges, as promised by the Democratic organ of the county, instead of having a tendency to weaken Davis, will be the means of making him many voters. The following is taken from an article appearing in last week's Moundsville Herald, which shows clearly the true state of affairs: "The feeling which prevailed generally when court adjourned Friday was one of disgust. The writer talked with a number of gentlemen, who had been in attendance as witnesses, and all felt the same way. They had been misled as to the situation, and came here believing Mr. Davis guilty of many things, but they went home Friday convinced of his innocence, and will work and vote for him at the coming election. This is no over-drawn picture. The object of this article is to merely give a calm, reasonable, candid resume of the situation. We talked to some of the heaviest tax-payers in the county, who came here determined to defeat Mr. Davis, but who went home his earnest friends and supporters. The change in their feelings was wrought by the developments of the trial."

A COWARDLY ASSAULT

Made by Unscrupulous Politicians Upon Joseph E. Blackburn.

Unscrupulous Democratic politicians over in Ohio are making a vile attack upon Hon. Joseph E. Blackburn, the Republican candidate for state food and dairy commissioner. Unknown persons have sent out letters purporting to come from the chief clerk in Mr. Blackburn's office, asking for contributions in "this the hour of our need."

Needless to state the letter is a fraud and should impose upon no one receiving it. Mr. Blackburn and his chief clerk, Mr. Bridge, have come out in an affidavit asserting their entire ignorance of such a letter. It was sent out to wholesale grocers all over the state of Ohio, and was calculated to prejudice merchants receiving it against the Republican state ticket.

"Despicable Methods" Again.

Hand bills were distributed broadcast through Martin's Ferry last night, headed: "Despicable Methods," and which went on to give alleged reasons why Captain Danford should be defeated at the polls to-day. The signature, after the Intelligence's exposure of the scheme yesterday morning, "Straight Republican Committee," had been carefully cut off by the Democrats, who were at the head of what may be justly called "Democracy's Despicable Methods." Several prominent over-the-river Democrats said last night that the good done Danford by the circulation of the bill would be ten-fold to all the harm that possibly be done.

In Belmont County.

The wish is father to the thought with those who expect to see any part of the Republican ticket defeated in Belmont county. Chairman Henry M. Davies and Sheriff Darby were in Bellare yesterday, and the majority in the county is placed at not less than 1,200, and may reach 2,000.

Election day Weather.

The weather bureau promises a brand of weather on election day that is sometimes construed to mean Democratic success—rain—but with the proviso that it will also be warmer, and of course a warm day brings out Republicans. The atmospheric pressure has increased over the eastern lake region and over the New England, middle and south Atlantic states and a second high area is developing in the extreme northwest. The barometer has fallen, the center of depression being 29.52 inches at Moorhead. The temperature has fallen over the greater portion of the country east of the Mississippi valley, and has risen throughout the east. During the past twenty-four hours rain has fallen along the New England and middle Atlantic coasts and heavy snows have been reported from the extreme northwest.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

Grand this evening—The Gibneys. Opera House to-night—Big Minstrel Festival.

Polls open at 6:40 a. m. and close at 4:50 p. m., fast time.

Council is scheduled to meet to-night, but a session isn't likely to be held.

Vote early, vote straight and see that your Republican neighbors vote as early and as straight.

The Ohio county vote will be completed at the office of the board of county commissioners to-night. The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Matthew's church will give a missionary tea at the rectory, 1410 Chapline street, this afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock. All friends invited.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Met in Monthly Session Yesterday. Routine Business Transacted.

The Ohio county board of commissioners met in monthly session yesterday and transacted some routine business. Bills were ordered paid, as follows: Contingent pool fund, $1,066.80; court house and jail, $975.15. The sheriff was credited with county orders to the amount of $33,418.10.

N. E. Murray gave bond in the sum of $2,000, and qualified as justice of the peace in Liberty district.

S. O. Boyce and John B. Wilson, the committee to examine the circuit clerk's office, reported finding the books of record and account kept in good condition by Clerk Henning and Assistant Clerk Wilcox. As stated before, the committee deems it advisable for the clerk to occupy the office and vault on the lower floor.

Receiving of bids for coal, medicine and undertaking for the ensuing year was postponed.

Changes of election judges in two precincts were confirmed. The corrected list is given in another column.

THE GRAND JURY

Was in Session Yesterday, But Could Not Complete its Labors.

The criminal court, Judge Hugus on the bench, opened its fall term yesterday morning. The grand jury was composed of the following:

John Waterhouse, foreman; members, W. L. Glesner, William Grabe, George W. Lutz, D. Gutman, C. P. Hamilton, John W. Emsley, Wylie Cox, C. B. Stinger, Henry Kalbitzer, Joseph Hanger, R. S. Kinchloe, Herman W. Zwicker, John Bodley, Thomas J. Bail and Albert Beltz.

During the day a large number of witnesses was examined on various criminal indictments presented by Prosecuting Attorney Meyer, a list of which was given exclusively in the Intelligence, Saturday morning. The tax return cases were not reached, and when the grand jury adjourned

Deadly Cancer Cured at Last!

Do Not Give Up in Despair—There is Hope!

For ages it has been thought that Cancer is incurable, and those so unfortunate as to have this dreadful affliction have considered themselves beyond hope of recovery. The doctors are absolutely unable to afford any relief, and the poor sufferer might well consider himself on the way to an early grave.

It is now easy to see why the doctors have failed to cure Cancer. Their theories have been all wrong, and hence their treatment misdirected. They have made the mistake of thinking that by cutting out the sore or ulcer, known as Cancer, the disease would be gotten rid of, and the patient restored to health. But the cruel knife accomplishes nothing, for the Cancer promptly returns, and is always more virulent than before.

It has been demonstrated, beyond doubt, that Cancer is a blood disease, and can not be cured by the surgeon's knife, because the blood can not be cut away.

"Several years ago my wife had an ulcer on her tongue, which, though annoying, was not regarded seriously at first. It refused to heal and began to grow, giving her much pain. The doctors treated it for quite a while but were unable to do her any good, and finally pronounced it Cancer of a most malignant type. We were greatly alarmed and gave her every remedy recommended, but they did not seem to reach the disease, and it continued to spread and grow. Upon the advice of a friend she began to take S. S. S., and after a few bottles had been used a decided improvement was noticed, and continuing the remedy she was cured completely and the permanence of the cure has been proved, as no sign of the disease has returned, though ten years have elapsed. H. L. MIDDLEBROOK, Sparta, Ga."

The cures made by S. S. S. are permanent. It is the only blood remedy which can cure obstinate deep-seated blood diseases, because it is the only one which acts on the correct principle of forcing out the poison and ridding the system of it forever.

S. S. S. never fails to cure the worst cases of Cancer, Scrofula, Catarrh, Eczema, Contagious Blood Poison, Rheumatism, old sores, ulcers, etc., it matters not what other remedies have been used in vain. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed.

AMUSEMENTS.

A very large audience thoroughly enjoyed "The Prisoner of Zenda" at the Opera House last night. The "Rudolph" of Mr. Howard Gould and the "Flavia" of Miss Margaret Fuller were faultless, and would have received the commendation of Anthony Hope himself. This is a play of heart-interest that will never grow too old; like "The Old Homestead" and Shakespearean plays, it will run on forever.

THE MINSTREL FESTIVAL.

To-night at the Opera House the attraction is Richard & Pringle's-Rusco & Holland's Big Minstrel Festival. The word "festival" in connection with a minstrel show aptly defines what the performance with this organization will be. A feast of good things is promised; twelve big novelty acts in the olio; joy and mirth in every act; special wardrobe and scenery a feast for the eye; sweet songs and music a treat for the ear. The elaborate street parade is a promise of the magnitude of the stage performance.

Young man Accidentally Shot.

Hayes Powers, a young man living at 82 Fifteenth street, was shot in the face by the accidental discharge of his revolver yesterday morning. The accident occurred out the pike. Young Powers was taken to the North Wheeling Hospital, and his condition is not critical. The ball was removed from his head.

Death of Prominent Politician.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.
CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 7.—Thomas P. Brennon, proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel, at this place, died this morning, of Bright's disease. He was well known throughout the state, and was an active politician, having served as chairman of the Democratic executive committee in his county several years ago.

Bryan Grows Witty.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 7.—Colonel William J. Bryan, Third Nebraska volunteer, passed through St. Louis to-day from Savannah, Ga., on his way home. In response to a request for an interview, Col. Bryan said: "Don't ask me to discuss the political situation. Don't intimate an inquiry as to prevailing conditions in the army. Why? Because I have military lock-jaw."
